

Fort Collins Day Trip Itinerary

Pick up bikes at the Fort Collins Bike Library

The Fort Collins Bike Library is a community funded initiative that allows tourists and residents alike to check out bikes, free of charge, for one day. These bikes can be used for transportation, brewery tours, bike trails and anything else you need.

250 North Mason

Fort Collins, CO 80524

970-419-1050

www.fcbikelibrary.org

Explore Old Town Fort Collins

The inspiration for Disneyland's Main Street USA. Enjoy the ambiance of one of 'America's Best Downtowns and home to many Fort Collins local shops, restaurants, art and music.

Lunch at Austin's American Grill

Austin's American Grill is Fort Collins' favorite hip, comfortable place to meet and eat. Whether watching the world go by on the patio Downtown, or getting away from it all in the bar at Austin's South - Austin's is always a welcome slice of home and a genuine taste of home-style American comfort food."

100 W. Mountain Ave.

Fort Collins, CO

(970) 224-9691

austinsamericangrill.com

Afternoon Bike Ride on the Poudre River Trail

The Poudre River Trail is one of Fort Collins' many paved bike/pedestrian trails that link nature and commuting. This trail meanders along the Poudre River for 10.10 miles from the Western foothills to the Eastern Plains of Fort Collins.

Visit New Belgium Brewery or Odell Brewing Co.

New Belgium Brewing Company, makers of Fat Amber Ale and other Belgian-inspired beers, began operations in a tiny Fort Collins basement in 1991. Today, the third largest craft brewer in the U.S., New Belgium produces seven year-round beers.

500 Linden Street

Fort Collins, CO 80524

(970) 221-0524

www.newbelgium.com

Odell Brewing Company is a sustainable, green microbrewery that brews handcrafted and small batch beers, including pale ales, stouts, pilsners, and porters.

800 E. Lincoln Avenue

Fort Collins, CO 80524

970-498-9070

www.odellbrewing.com

Dinner at Gravity 1020

Gravity 1020 is Northern Colorado's premier restaurant inside a full production brewery, Fort Collins Brewery, which provides five full-time and five seasonal brews; a place for beer and food aficionados alike.

1020 E Lincoln Ave

Fort Collins, CO 80524

(970) 682-2260

www.gravity1020.com